

How to become a Westcon NDAC Partner

#1 Partner registration (online)

Please proceed as follows:

1. Please click on this link:
<https://www.westconcomstor.com/store/GB/en/user/offlineregistration>
2. Then please fill out the form

Important: Select your local area and country, enter your data, select

"I am a new customer", tick the terms of use and then click on submit.

3. Please note you need to choose a password yourself! For example:
"Tester123!"

4. You will then receive an email with a time-limited activation link (please check the spam folder if necessary) and confirm the registration within the limited time window.

5. A new browser window should then open, where you enter your previously defined username and the password you have chosen yourself on the right-hand side.

6. The registration form will open, please fill it in with the necessary data.

7. When you have filled in everything, please click on Submit.

The Nokia experts will check the data and release it as soon as possible. You will receive further information shortly.
