Any failure by the Representative to comply with any of the obligations in this clause will be regarded for the purpose of this Agreement as a material breach by the Representative that is incapable of remedy.

12. Force majeure

Neither party will be liable to the other for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement which arises because of any circumstances which it cannot reasonably be expected to control (including any fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature or acts of God, acts of war (whether or not war is declared), terrorism, riots, civil disorders, rebellions or revolutions, strikes, lock outs or other form of industrial action (other than strikes, lockouts or other form of industrial action of the relevant party's personnel) all occurring in the place from where the obligations of the party whose performance is affected are performed, but excluding non-performance by any sub-contractor of the Representative, including Customers), provided that it:

- (a) Notifies the other in writing as soon as reasonably practicable about the nature and extent of the circumstances and likely effects;
- (b) Uses all reasonable efforts to mitigate the effects of the circumstances to minimise or avoid any adverse impact on the other;

- (c) Uses all reasonable efforts to resume performance as soon as reasonably practicable; and
- (d) Could not have avoided the effects of the circumstances by taking steps that it ought reasonably to have taken in the light of the matters known to it before the circumstances arose.

13. Dispute resolution

1. Disputes

Subject to clause 13.3, any dispute or difference between the parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, its interpretation or subject-matter ("Dispute") shall be referred to the Chief Operating Officer (or equivalent officer) of each party and then, if still not resolved, to the Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent officer) of each party. If any such Dispute remains unresolved for a period in excess of 14 days from the date it was referred to the latter representatives (or such other period as the parties may agree), it will be resolved in accordance with clauses 13.2 and 13.3.

2. Mediation

Subject to clause 13.3, any Dispute which remains unresolved following the exhaustion of the procedure set out in clause 13.1 may be referred to mediation in accordance with the Centre for Dispute Resolution ("CEDR") Model Mediation Procedure ("Model Procedure"). To initiate mediation, a party must give written notice ("Mediation Notice") to the other party requesting a mediation in accordance with this clause 13.2. A copy of the request should also be sent to CEDR. The Model Procedure will be amended to take account of any other agreement which the parties may enter in relation to the conduct of the mediation. If there is any point on the conduct of the mediation (including the nomination of the mediator) upon which the parties cannot agree within 14 days from the date of the Mediation Notice, CEDR will, at the request of either party, decide that point for the parties, having consulted with them. The mediation will start not later than 21 days after the date of the Mediation Notice. Neither party may terminate mediation until each party has made its opening presentation and the mediator has met each party separately. Thereafter, paragraph 14 of the Model Procedure will apply. The mediation will take place in London, England and the language of the mediation will be English.

3. Other relief

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent any party, in cases in which interim, injunctive or declaratory relief is required, or where the right to issue proceedings would be prejudiced by the impending expiration of any applicable limitation period, from commencing proceedings and pursuing claims before a court of competent jurisdiction.

14. General

14.1 Sub-contracting and assignment

The Representative may not sub-license or assign, sub-contract or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Distributor.

3. Notices and consents

All notices and consents relating to this Agreement must be in writing. Notices must be sent to the address of the recipient set out in this Agreement or otherwise notified by the relevant party in accordance with this Agreement. Notices shall be sent by hand or by first class recorded delivery or registered post or other form of certified or registered mail (and sent by air mail if posted to or from a place outside the United Kingdom) and shall be treated as having been delivered:

- (a) If sent by hand, when delivered; and
- (b) If sent by registered mail, two days after the date of posting (or, if sent by air mail, seven days after the date of posting).

14.4 Waiver or delay etc.

- (a) If a party:
 - (i) Fails to exercise or delays exercising or only exercises partially any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law; or
 - (ii) Agrees not to exercise or to delay exercising any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law;

then that party shall not be deemed to have waived and shall not be precluded or restricted from further exercising that or any other right or remedy; and

- (b) No right, power or remedy under this Agreement or otherwise available to a party is exclusive of any other right, power or remedy under this Agreement or otherwise available to that party.

5. Invalid or unenforceable terms

If any provision of this Agreement is held for any reason to be ineffective or unenforceable, this shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement or this Agreement as a whole. If any provision of this Agreement is so found to be ineffective or unenforceable but would be effective or enforceable if some part of the provision were deleted, the provision in question shall apply with such modification(s) as may be necessary to make it effective and enforceable.

6. Variations

Except to the extent expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement, all variations to this Agreement must be agreed, set out in writing and signed on behalf of both parties before they take effect.

7. Partnership or joint venture

Except to the extent that this Agreement expressly provides otherwise, nothing in this Agreement shall or is intended to create a partnership or joint venture between the parties, or give either party authority to make or enter into commitments, assume liabilities or pledge credit on behalf of the other party. Neither party may act as if it has or represent (expressly or by implying it) that it has, any such authority.

8. Rights of third parties

A person who is not a party to this Agreement (including each Customer) shall not have any rights under or in connection with it, whether under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise.

9. No other terms

This Agreement sets out all the terms that have been agreed between the parties in relation to the subjects covered by it and supersedes all previous agreements between the parties relating to such subjects. Provided always that nothing in this clause will operate to limit or exclude any liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, no other representations or terms shall apply or form part of this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that it has not been influenced to enter this Agreement by, and shall have no right or remedy (other than for breach of contract) in respect of, anything the other party has said or done or committed to do, except as expressly recorded in this Agreement.

10. Further assurance

Each party shall carry out, or procure the carrying out of, whatever further actions the other party reasonably requires from time to time (including execution of further documents) for the purpose of giving that party the full benefit of the provisions of this Agreement.

11. Law and jurisdiction

This Agreement is governed by English law. Subject to clause 13, the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts in relation to any dispute or difference between the parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, its interpretation or subject-matter.
